The Group recognises the important role whistleblowing can play in the early detection of misconduct. The Group also recognises that individuals who are considering disclosing misconduct may fear retribution or other detriment and require an assurance of protection.

4. PROTECTED DISCLOSURES UNDER THIS POLICY

4.1 Disclosures which qualify for protection

A disclosure of information by an employee is protected under this Policy if the employee has reasonable grounds to suspect that the information concerns or indicates misconduct in relation to a Group entity and the disclosure is made in accordance with this Policy (Protected Disclosure).

4.2 How to make a Protected Disclosure

There are several channels available for making a Protected Disclosure under this Policy:

- a) if you are an employee of a Group entity, your supervisor or manager is eligible to receive Protected Disclosures. The supervisor or manager must then report the information disclosed to a Protected Disclosure Officer in accordance with the confidentiality protocols detailed in this Policy.
- b) The Group's Protected Disclosure Officers are eligible to receive Protected Disclosures. The Group's Protected Disclosure Officers are the Chairman and Company Secretary, who may be contacted on cosec@company matters.com.au.
- c) If the Protected Disclosure in some way implicates the Chairman or the Company Secretary then the disclosure should be made to the Chair of the Audit & Risk Committee in writing marked private and confidential to : john.patton@metgasco.com.au

A person making a Protected Disclosure may advise that they wish to remain anonymous or place restrictions on who knows their identity. The Group will comply with these requests and will still make best endeavours to investigate an anonymous disclosure. However, there may be limitations in investigating a disclosure where a whistleblower does not consent to disclosure of their identity.

5. CONFIDENTIALITY OF A WHISTLEBLOWER'S IDENTITY

- 5.1 The Group will take disciplinary action, which may include dismissal, against any person who makes an unauthorised disclosure of the identity of a person who makes a Protected Disclosure under this Policy or of information that is likely to lead to the identification of that person.
- 5.2 It is an offence under the Act for a person who has directly or indirectly obtained information about the identity of a person who has made a Protected Disclosure, to disclose the identity of that person or information that is likely to lead to the identification of that person, without authorisation.

6. DUTIES OF EMPLOYEES IN RELATION TO MISCONDUCT

- 6.1 Employees of the Group who become aware of known or suspected cases of misconduct are expected to report that information by making a Protected Disclosure under this Policy.

- 7.1 The Protected Disclosure Officers are responsible for receiving, forwarding and acting upon disclosures made under this Policy.
- 7.2 The Protected Disclosure Officers will:
 - a) at the earliest opportunity and within no more than 14 days after receipt of a Protected Disclosure, except where the person has chosen to remain anonymous, clearly explain to the person making the disclosure what will happen in relation to the information received;
 - b) when requested, make arrangements to ensure that disclosures can be made privately and, if necessary, away from the workplace;
 - c) reduce to writing and date any disclosures received orally;

7.3 All information relating to a Protected Disclosure and its investigation will be retained under strict security and confidentiality. Unauthorised release of information to someone not involved in the investigation without the consent of the whistleblower will be a breach of this Policy except where the disclosure is required by law or it is appropriate to make the disclosure to a regulator.

7.4 Fair treatment of individuals mentioned in Protected Disclosures

7.4.1 Where investigations or other enquiries do not substantiate a Protected Disclosure, the fact the enquiry has been carried out, the results of the enquiry, and the identity of any person the subject of the disclosure will remain confidential, unless the subject of the disclosure requests otherwise.
